

Support our Library

Friends of Heritage Public Library is asking for your support of the Heritage Public Library. Your involvement is instrumental in helping to fund the Summer Reading Program, author and artist receptions, musical performances, internet services and other library services.

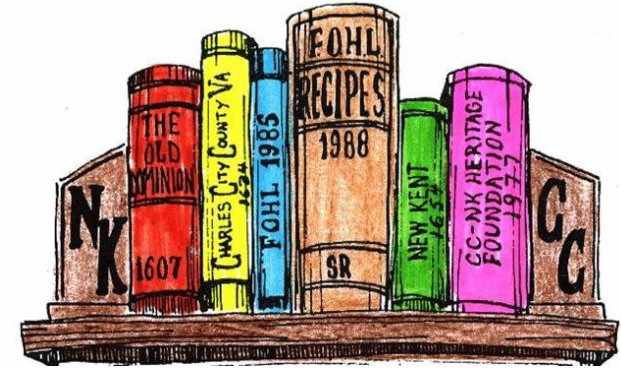

As our counties grow, it is very important that our libraries do also. Please take a moment to become a member of Friends of Heritage Public Library and show that our library is important.

Who We Are

Friends of Heritage Public Library formed in February 2002 as a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization under the laws of Virginia and the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

We bring like-minded people together to support, improve and promote our local libraries and the services they provide for the citizens of New Kent and Charles City Counties.

New Kent branch located at 7791 Invicta Lane.

FOHPL solicits volunteers to raise funds and educate the public about the library.

FOHPL is governed by four elected officers. Officers meet twice a year in the Spring and Fall. Special committees may form periodically as needed to accomplish special tasks.

You can make a difference!
